LOCAL RADIO MINISTRY WINS NATIONAL HONOR

Lufkin/Nacogdoches, TX- Listener supported 91.9 KAVX has been named by the National Religious Broadcasters as 2004 Station of the Year in the talk format category. The announcement was made at the NRB National Convention, Monday night, in Charlotte, North Carolina. General Manager Dwyan Calvert was present to accept the award. “God gets the glory! If we were scientists, this would be our Nobel. If we were authors, this would be our Pulitzer. I humbly accept this on behalf of Lufkin, Nacogdoches, and all of East Texas. They’ve earned it.” said Mr. Calvert.

National Religious Broadcasters presented this award to KAVX “...for serving its community through innovative, locally focused programming and events, incorporating a broad spectrum of viewpoints...” said Frank Wright, Ph.D., President of the National Religious Broadcasters.

91.9 KAVX competed with other talk format radio stations from across the United States, and was selected as the winner by a panel of broadcast professionals. “We were competing with stations from all size markets across the nation, large and small, so it is quite an honor to be selected” said KAVX Operations Manager Al Ross.
